

QUALITY POLICY

These statements are made on the authority of the Quality Manager as at 30 June 2019.

The management of Opira Pty Ltd strive to be the premiere supplier of consultancy and testing services relating to environmental and occupational health risks.

To this end, the management have developed and maintain a Quality Management System certified to ISO9001 and have made a commitment to continually improve the system with a view to increasing business efficiency and satisfying applicable requirements to achieve customer satisfaction. Technical competency is assured through ISO17025 accreditation.

The management have developed and review quality objectives to ensure service level and client satisfaction continually improve.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Dale Howard".

Dale Howard
Quality Manager